EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Melvin Kraus on September 20, 2004.

The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 9, line 12, delete "reference" and insert --interference--; and

In claim 9, line 15, delete "thin" and insert --insulating--.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

In claims 1, 2, 18, 19, and 20, applicants have presented persuasive arguments (see pages 1-6 of Request for Reconsideration, in Amendment filed July 1, 2004), which show the prior art of record taken alone or in combination fails to suggest, teach, or render obvious a method of detecting endpoint of polishing processing, comprising the step of: separately detecting interference lights of said respective lights having the different wavelengths caused by interference between lights reflected from a surface of said thin film and surfaces of said patterns formed on said wafer with the lights of the different wavelengths which are irradiated, along with the other limitations of said claims; and detecting interference lights of said respective lights having the different wavelengths generated by interference between lights reflected from a surface of said insulating film and surfaces of said patterns formed on said wafer with the lights of the different wavelengths which are irradiated, along with the other limitations of said claims.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Lynette T. Umez-Eronini whose telephone number is 571-272-1470. The examiner can normally be reached on is normally unavailable on the First Friday.
